

Solidarity Statement:

We stand in solidarity with the Black Lives Matter movement, Indigenous peoples, Immigrant communities & protestors/protectors across the country.

To our Black, Indigenous, and People of Color (BIPOC) community members:

We hear you. We see you. We will fight with you.

For our non-BIPOC community members:

It is imperative to recognize and call out anti-Blackness in ourselves and our communities. Dismantling white supremacy begins with acknowledging our own implicit biases and choosing to act against oppression.

Listen to Black and Indigenous voices: use your privilege to amplify their messaging without speaking over them. Give your time, your ears, your hands, and your money if you are able. Use your privilege as a shield for those who are unprotected.

This extensive list of resources, actionable items, and links has been curated by Changing Womxn's Collective but we know that there are still incredible resources out there that are not included in this document. We will continue to update as we find more, and encourage you to continue amplifying anything you come across with your friends, family, loved ones, followers, communities, and local collectives.

<https://naacp.org/coronavirus/>

Brooklyn Community Bail Fund

"Brooklyn Community Bail Fund secures the freedom of New Yorkers who would otherwise be detained pretrial due to their poverty alone. We are committed to challenging the criminalization of race, poverty and immigration status, the practice of putting a price on fundamental rights, and the persistent myth that bail is a necessary element of the justice system."

<https://brooklynbailfund.org/>

Donate to National Bail Out

"National Bail Out is a Black-led and Black-centered collective of abolitionist organizers, lawyers and activists building a community-based movement to support our folks and end systems of pretrial detention and ultimately mass incarceration. We are people who have been impacted by cages — either by being in them ourselves or witnessing our families and loved ones be encaged. We are queer, trans, young, elder, and immigrant."

<https://secure.actblue.com/donate/freeblackmamas2020>

NAACP Legal Defense Fund

"Donations to this legal organization go toward helping "win landmark legal battles, protect voters across the nation, and advance the cause of racial justice, equality, and an inclusive society."

Communities United Against Police Brutality

"Communities United Against Police Brutality™ is a Twin-Cities based organization that was created to deal with police brutality on an ongoing basis. We work on the day-to-day abuses as well as taking on the more extreme cases. Our overriding goal is to create a climate of resistance to abuse of authority by police organizations and to empower local people with a structure that can take on police brutality and actually bring it to an end. We provide support for survivors of police brutality and families of victims so they can reclaim their dignity and join the struggle to end police brutality."

The Marsha P. Johnson Institute

Protects and defends the human rights of Black transgender people through organizing, advocating, and creating an intentional community to heal, develop transformative leadership, and promote collective power.
www.marshap.org

TGI Justice

A group of transgender, gender variant, and intersex people inside and outside of prisons, jails, and detention centers creating a united family in the struggle for survival and freedom. They work in collaboration to forge a culture of resistance and resilience to strengthen themselves in the fight against human rights abuses, imprisonment, police violence, racism, poverty, and societal pressures.
www.tgijp.org

TransWomen of Color Collective

Their work is led by the narratives, voices, and leadership of our community members who exist at the nexus of state sanctioned violence: sex workers, poor people, homelessness, folk experiencing home insecurity, folks deeply entrenched in complex, seemingly inescapable traumatic environments. Through healing and restorative justice, they're building a network of trans, non-binary Black and POC who are artists, healers, entrepreneurs, and creators sharing and cultivating sustainable projects for that community, by that community.
